If on December 31, 2019, your shares of Company common stock were registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, Mountain Share Transfer, LLC, then you are a Shareholder of record. As a Shareholder of record, you may vote in person at the Special Meeting, or vote by proxy. Beneficial Owner: Shares Registered in the Name of a Broker or Bank

If on December 31, 2019, your shares of Company common stock were held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, dealer or other similar organization, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name" and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered the Shareholder of record for purposes of voting at the Special Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or other agent on how to vote the shares in your account. You are also invited to attend the Special Meeting. However, since you are not the Shareholder of record, you may not vote your shares in person at the Special Meeting unless you request and obtain a signed letter or other valid proxy from your broker or other agent.

What am I voting on?

There are three matters scheduled for a vote at the Special Meeting: (1) to ratify the appointment of as Officers and Directors of the Company and (2) retain counsel to terminate the Court Ordered Custodianship.

The Court-Appointed Custodian does not intend to bring any other matters before the meeting and is not aware of anyone else who will submit any other matters to be voted on. However, if any other matters properly come before the meeting, the people named on the proxy card, or their substitutes, will be authorized to vote on those matters in their own judgment.

How many votes do I have?

Beneficial Owner: Shares Registered in the Name of Broker or Bank

If you hold your shares in "street name" and thus are a beneficial owner of shares registered in the name of your broker, bank or other agent, you must vote your shares in the manner prescribed by your broker or other nominee. Your broker or other nominee has enclosed or otherwise provided a voting instruction card for you to use in directing the broker or nominee how to vote your shares. Check the voting form used by that organization to see if it offers internet or telephone voting. To vote in person at the Special Meeting, you must obtain a valid proxy from your broker, bank or other agent. Follow the instructions from your broker or bank included with these proxy materials, or contact your broker or bank to request a proxy form.

How are votes counted?

You may either vote "FOR" or "WITHHOLD" authority to vote for each nominee for the board of directors. You may vote "FOR", "AGAINST" or "ABSTAIN" on any other proposals.

If you submit your proxy but abstain from voting or withhold authority to vote on one or more matters, your shares will be counted as present at the meeting for the purpose of determining a quorum. Your shares also will be counted as present at the meeting for the purpose of calculating the vote on the particular matter with respect to which you abstained from voting or withheld authority to vote.

If you abstain from voting on a proposal, your abstention has the same effect as a vote against that proposal, except, however, an abstention has no effect on the election of directors. See "How many votes are needed to approve each Proposal?"

If you hold your shares in street name and do not provide voting instructions to your brokerage firm, it may still be able to vote your shares with respect to certain "discretionary" (or routine) items, but it will not be allowed to vote your shares with respect to certain "non-discretionary" items. In the case of non-discretionary items, for which no instructions are received, the shares will be treated as "broker non-votes". Shares that constitute broker non-votes will be counted as present at the meeting for the purpose of determining a quorum, but will not be considered entitled to vote on the proposal in question. Your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote shares for the election of directors.

How many votes are needed to approve each Proposal?

A majority of the common stock issued and outstanding are required to approve each proposal.

Can I change my vote after submitting my proxy?

Yes. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the final vote at the Special Meeting. If you are a Shareholder of record, you may revoke your proxy in any one of four ways:

- You may submit another properly completed proxy card with a later date.

PLAYBOX(US), INC.
c/o Mountain Share Transfer, LLC
2030 Powers Ferry Road SE, Suite # 212

- You may send a written notice that you are revoking your proxy to Corporate Secretary % Mountain Share Transfer, LLC., 2030 Powers Ferry Road SE, Suite # 212, Atlanta, GA. 30339.
- You may attend the Special Meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the Special Meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.
- If you hold your shares in street name, contact your broker or other nominee regarding how to revoke your proxy and change your vote.

How can I find out the results of the voting at the Special Meeting?

Preliminary voting results will be announced at the Special Meeting. Final voting results will be published in within four (4) business days after the Special Meeting.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

If you receive more than one proxy card, your shares are registered in more than one name or are registered in different accounts. Please complete, date, sign and return each proxy card, or vote your shares via the Internet or by telephone for each proxy card you received to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Who is paying for this proxy solicitation?

All of the expenses involved in preparing, assembling and mailing these proxy materials and all costs of soliciting proxies will be paid by the Court Appointed Custodian. We will reimburse the Court Appointed Custodian for such costs. We may also reimburse brokerage firms, banks and other agents for the cost of forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners.

When are Shareholder proposals due for next year's annual meeting?

Our Shareholders also may submit proposals for inclusion in the proxy material. These proposals must meet the Shareholder eligibility and other requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). To be considered for inclusion in next year's proxy materials, you must submit your proposal in writing by December 31st, 2020 to our Corporate Secretary, % Mountain Share Transfer, LLC., 2030 Powers Ferry Road SE, Suite # 212, Atlanta, GA. 30339.
