INFORMATION ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

Why am I receiving these materials?

The Company is mailing a notice of meeting and internet availability of documents to the last known address of its shareholders. Shareholders wanting a printed, paper version of the documents may request so in writing by contacting the Transfer Agent, Mountain Share Transfer prior to the meeting date.

Mountain Share Transfer, LLC.
2030 Powers Ferry Road SE
Suite # 212
Atlanta, Ga. 30339

These documents are being made available to you in connection with the Company’s solicitation of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting. These materials describe the proposals on which the Company would like you to vote and to give you information on these proposals so that you can make an informed decision.

What is included in these materials?

These materials include:

- this Proxy Statement for the Annual Meeting;
- the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022, and
- the proxy card or vote instruction form for the Annual Meeting.

What is the proxy card?

The proxy card enables you to appoint OC Kim, our President, as your representative at the Annual Meeting. By completing and returning a proxy card, you are authorizing this individual to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. This way, your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the Annual Meeting.

What is the purpose of the Annual Meeting?

At our Annual Meeting, stockholders will act upon the matters outlined in the Notice of Annual Meeting on the cover page of this Proxy Statement, including (i) the election of five persons named herein as nominees for directors of the Company to hold office, subject to the provisions of the bylaws of the Company, until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are duly elected and qualified; (ii) ratification of the appointment of Paris, Kreit & Chiu CPA LLP (formerly named Benjamin & Ko) as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year 2023; and (iii) such other matters as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

What constitutes a quorum?

Holders of a majority of shares of our Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting must be present at our Annual Meeting, online or by proxy, to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the Annual Meeting.

What is the difference between a stockholder of record and a beneficial owner of shares held in street name?

Most of our stockholders hold their shares in an account at a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee holder, rather than holding share certificates in their own name. As summarized below, there are some distinctions between shares held of record and those owned beneficially in street name.

Stockholder of Record

If, on October 13, 2022, your shares were registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, Mountain Share Transfer, you are considered a stockholder of record with respect to those shares, and the Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement was sent directly to you by the Company. As the stockholder of record, you have the right to direct the voting of your shares by returning the proxy card to us. Whether or not you plan to attend the online Annual Meeting, please complete, date, sign and return a proxy card to ensure that your vote is counted.

Beneficial Owner of Shares Held in Street Name

If, on October 13, 2022, your shares were held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, broker-dealer, or other nominee holder, then you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in “street name,” and the Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement was forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the Annual Meeting. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct that organization on how to vote the shares held in your account. However, since you are not the stockholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the Annual Meeting unless you receive a valid proxy from the organization.

How do I vote?

Stockholders of Record. If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote by any of the following methods:

- By Mail. You may vote by completing, signing, dating and returning your proxy card in the pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope provided.
- Through the Internet. Go to the website set forth on your proxy card and follow the instructions provided at the website.
- At the Online Annual Meeting. You may attend and vote at the online Annual Meeting, following the instructions provided.
- Other methods. You may vote by completing, signing, dating and returning your proxy card via email or facsimile following the instructions set forth on your proxy card.

Beneficial Owners of Shares Held in Street Name. If you are a beneficial owner of shares held in street name, you may vote by any of the following methods:

- By Mail. You may vote by proxy by filling out the vote instruction form and returning it in the pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope provided.
- Through the Internet. If provided to you by the organization that holds your shares, follow the instructions for voting through the Internet.
- At the Online Meeting. If you are a beneficial owner of shares held in street name and you wish to vote your shares at the online Annual Meeting, you must obtain a legal proxy from the organization that holds your shares.

Abstentions and broker non-votes

While the inspectors of election will treat shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions or include "broker non-votes" as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, abstentions or "broker non-votes" do not constitute a vote "for" or "against" any matter and thus will be disregarded in any calculation of "votes cast." However, abstentions and "broker non-votes" will have the effect of a negative vote if an item requires the approval of a majority of a quorum or of a specified proportion of all outstanding shares.

Brokers holding shares of record for customers generally are not entitled to vote on “non-routine” matters, unless they receive voting instructions from their customers. The term “uninstructed shares” means shares held by a broker who has not received voting instructions from its customers on a proposal. A “broker non-vote” occurs when a nominee holding uninstructed shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that non-routine matter.

What happens if I do not give specific voting instructions?

Stockholders of Record. If you are a stockholder of record and you:

- indicate when voting on the Internet or by email or facsimile that you wish to vote as recommended by the Board of Directors, or
- sign and return a proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, then the proxy holder will vote your shares in the manner recommended by the Board of Directors on all matters presented in this proxy statement and as the proxy holders may determine in their discretion with respect to any other matters properly presented for a vote at the Annual Meeting.

Beneficial Owners of Shares Held in Street Name. If you are a beneficial owner of shares held in street name and do not provide the organization that holds your shares with specific voting instructions, under the rules of various national and regional securities exchanges, the organization that holds your shares may generally not vote on non-routine matters, such as the election of directors.

What are the Board's recommendations?

The Board's recommendation is set forth together with the description of each item in this Proxy Statement. In summary, the Board recommends a vote:

- for election of the five directors nominated to hold office, subject to the provisions of the Bylaws of the Company, until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are duly elected and qualified;
- to approve the ratification of the appointment of Paris, Kreit & Chiu CPA LLP. (formerly named Benjamin & Ko) as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year 2023.

With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the proxy holder will vote as recommended by the Board of Directors or, if no recommendation is given, in his own discretion.

How are Proxy materials delivered to households?

For shareholders receiving proxy material by mail, only one copy of the Company's 10-K for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2022 and this Proxy Statement will be delivered to an address where two or more stockholders reside with the same last name or who otherwise reasonably appear to be members of the same family based on the stockholders' prior express or implied consent.

“Short- Swing Profits” Litigation

A legal action was filed against Franklin, as a nominal defendant, on or about July 22, 2021, claiming that OC Kim violated Section 16(b) of the Securities Act of 1934 for receiving “short-swing profits” from a sale and purchase of shares in violation of the Act. We believe the allegations are not supported by the facts and we intend to vigorously defend against these claims.

During fiscal 2022, the Board of Directors held five meetings. Each director attended all of the meetings of the Board.

What committees has the Board established?

- Nominating Committee consisting of Gary Nelson (committee chair) and Johnathan Chee.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is responsible for retaining, evaluating and, if appropriate, recommending the termination of the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee assists the Board in oversight of (1) the integrity of the Company's financial statements, (2) the Company's independent auditor's qualifications and independence, and (3) the performance of the independent auditors. In addition, the Committee renders its report for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement. The Audit Committee's charter is available on the Company's website at www.franklinwireless.com

The Nominating Committee seeks to identify director candidates based on input provided by a number of sources, including (1) the members of the Board of Directors, (2) our stockholders, and (3) third parties, such as service providers. In evaluating potential candidates for director, the Board of Directors considers the entirety of each candidate's credentials.

Qualifications for consideration as a director nominee may vary according to the particular areas of expertise being sought as a complement to the existing composition of the Board of Directors. However, at a minimum, candidates for director must possess:

The Board of Directors does not plan to change the manner in which it evaluates nominees for election as a director based on whether the nominee has been recommended by a stockholder or otherwise.

In considering new nominees and whether to re-nominate existing members of the Board, the committee seeks to achieve a Board with strengths in its collective knowledge and a broad diversity of perspectives, skills and business and professional experience. Among other items, the committee looks for a range of experience in strategic planning, sales, finance, executive leadership, industry, and similar attributes. During fiscal 2022, the Nominating Committee met one time.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

GENERAL PHILOSOPHY - We compensate our executive officers through a mix of base salary, bonus and stock options. Our compensation policies are designed to be competitive with comparable employers and to align management's incentives with both near term and long-term interests of our stockholders. We use informal methods of benchmarking our executive compensation, based on the experience of our directors or, in some cases, studies of industry standards. Our compensation is negotiated on a case by case basis, with attention being given to the amount of compensation necessary to make a competitive offer and the relative compensation among our executive officers.

BASE SALARIES - We want to provide our senior management with a level of cash compensation in the form of base salary that facilitates an appropriate lifestyle given their professional status and accomplishments.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION - Our practice is to award cash bonuses based upon performance objectives set by the Board of Directors. We maintain a bonus plan which provides our executive officers and non-executive officers the ability to earn cash bonuses based on the achievement of performance targets. The performance targets are established by the Board of Directors, and bonuses may be awarded to executive officers and non-executive officers on a quarterly basis. The actual amounts of cash bonuses to executive officers and non-executive officers are in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors. For fiscal 2018, the performance targets were based on achieving revenue and operating income targets.

SEVERANCE BENEFITS - We are generally an at will employer and have no employment agreements with severance benefits; however, we have entered into Change of Control Agreements with certain of our executive officers, that provide them with lump sum payments in the event of a change in control of the Company.

RETIREMENT PLANS - We do not maintain any retirement plans.
